

SENATOR CARPENTER: Yes.

SENATOR STAHLER: Well thank-you. I didn't know that.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Now let me further explain. Not only that, each whole saler has the exclusive right to that brand to be exclusived of everybody else.

SENATOR STAHLER: Within the State?

SENATOR CARPENTER: They have got an absolute monopoly.

SENATOR STAHLER: That is within the State?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Within the State. That is the most effective restriction you could put on any law to protect 7 whole salers.

PRESIDENT: Senator Richard Lewis. I'm sorry Senator Lewis, but your light isn't working and you can't get me without calling. Have patience.

SENATOR LEWIS: Mr. President, members of the legislature, I'd like to direct a question to Senator Carpenter if he would yield?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Yes.

SENATOR LEWIS: Senator, would you permit us to divide this question. It seems to me that we are talking really about two things. The licensing and the intransit rate as such.

SENATOR CARPENTER: It has already been divided. We've adopted the first two, we're on the last question, which only has to do with the delivery.

SENATOR LEWIS: I thought we adopted the emergency clause, I wasn't aware of the other.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well, we adopted the other one, I think we did, which had the result of taking out of the bill, which I indicated the body I would do, the area which required the licensing of those dispenser working for a license retailer.

SENATOR LEWIS: Do you concur Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Just now we have adopted only the emergency clause. It was my understanding that Senator Carpenter, asked to adopt all three of them together. The chair said we'd adopt them one at a time. So the only thing--

SENATOR CARPENTER: And the chair said, we'll vote on them separately. Is that right?

PRESIDENT: That is correct sir. Yes.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I presume that is what we are doing.

PRESIDENT: That is right and the clerk has read the one that we are discussing now and I understand there is one more behind that, which hasn't been read yet by the clerk, but I did this for clarification sake, Senator Lewis.

SENATOR CARPENTER: But I think what Senator Lewis and I am objecting to this, is the separation of the dispenser from the delivery. Is that right?

SENATOR LEWIS: True. This is my objection.

SENATOR CARPENTER: And I move for the division of the question. I probably already did that.
